

REGIONAL SCIENCE CONFERENCE

14-15 November 2025, Sofia, Bulgaria

FIRST LETTER

Topic: Regional science – concepts, theories and practices in SouthEast Europe

CONFERENCE BACKGROUND

Europe is in a stage of significant transformations with global and regional dimensions including political, economic, migration, social, environmental, and other transformations. The consequences of the global COVID-19 pandemic have not yet been overcome, and there are already additional challenges. Geopolitical, technological and economic rivalry has grown into an open military conflict on the territory of Europe, the consequences of which are ahead and require a clear assessment, while at the same time creating uncertainty in Southeast Europe.

Conference Keywords – priorities, resilience, integrity
